US VISA MOVE

'India may see limited impact'

Many in India expect the Trump admin to issue less number of visas due to growing unemployment in the US, says official

BANIKINKAR PATTANAYAK
New Delhi, June 23

THE US MOVE to suspend the issuance of new non-immigrant visas, especially for skilled professionals, until December 31 will likely have limited impact on India, an official source told FE. But the government will initiate all possible steps to ensure that the visa system gets reinstated and the mobility of Indian professionals across the world doesn't get hampered, he said. The US issues around 85,000 H-1B visas for skilled workers every year, of which Indians — mainly IT professionals — get an average of about 60,000, or roughly 70% of all such permits. Since the current restriction is for six months, the number of applicants for visas that could be hit in the best case would be 30,000.

However, because of a growing local unemployment and a likely massive GDP contraction in the US in the wake of the Covid-19 outbreak, many in India were, in any case, expecting the Trump administration to issue only about 5,000-10,000 visas, the official source said. So the Presidential proclamation would hit the prospect of those many visas. Moreover, the move doesn't alter the fate of the 3,00,000 H-1B visa holders from India already working there.

However, if the US extends the period of suspension and retains the curbs for a much longer period even when its economy rebounds, Indian industry — especially IT — will be hit, analysts say.

The Trump administration has temporarily suspended non-immigrant visas like H-1B, H-2B, L-1A, L-1B, J-1 and dependents. Individuals receiving these visas, or seeking entry into the US for the first time between June 24 and December 31, 2020, won't be allowed.

According to a CII survey released earlier this month, 155 Indian-origin companies have investments over $22 billion in the US and have created about 12.5,000 jobs. The survey also pointed at Indian investments having crossed $100 million each in 20 American states. It also said over the next five years, 77% of companies intend to raise their investments in the US, while 83% plan to hire more local employees.

However, US President Donald Trump has repeatedly asked foreign firms based out of the US to hire more local workers, rather than outsourcing jobs to cheaper economies. In 2017, Trump signed the 'Buy American and Hire American' executive order to create higher employment for Americans.

19L MSMEs benefitted from ₹3-lakh-cr scheme

FE BUREAU
New Delhi, June 23

The finance ministry on Tuesday said the loans being extended to MSMEs under the ₹3-lakh-crore Emergency Credit Line Guarantee Scheme (ECLGS) have helped as many as 19 lakh businesses resume operations after lockdown curbs were eased, barely three weeks into its implementation.

It also said Sidbi has sanctioned over ₹10,220 crore to NBFCs, micro-finance institutions (MFIs) and banks for lending to small businesses and the National Housing Bank (NHB) has sanctioned its ₹10,000 crore to housing finance companies under RBI's special liquidity facility announced recently.

This refinancing by Sidbi & NHB, the ministry says, is in addition to ongoing schemes through which over ₹30,000 crore has been sanctioned. NBFCs & MFIs are being further helped under an Extended Partial Guarantee Scheme where approvals have crossed ₹5,500 crore. Transactions for another ₹5,000 crore are under process while certain other deals are currently under negotiation, the ministry said in a statement. RBI had in April declared a special refinancing facility of ₹50,000 crore for financial institutions. Of this, Sidbi was allocated ₹15,000 crore for on-lending or refinancing and NHB ₹10,000 crore.

Similarly, banks have sanctioned working capital loans of over ₹79,000 crore as of June 20 under the ECLGS. Of this, more than ₹35,000 crore has been disbursed, the ministry said.

The scheme, under which the government offers full guarantee on up to 20% additional and collateral-free working capital loans, was rolled out from June 1 to soften the blow to MSMEs battered by the Covid-19 outbreak. Bankers say disbursement is picking up, as the lockdown curbs on the resumption of businesses have been eased substantially over the past three weeks.
